Goal:
To be the best small school in the State

From the Principal's Desk

The first quarter has wrapped up, and we are excited for all that the second quarter will bring, including the start of winter sports! We are proud of the learning and growth happening throughout our school and appreciate the continued support of our families and community.

Students in grades 5-8 visited The Archway in Kearney on September 30, connecting their learning about westward expansion with our Storm Strong values of Responsibility, Kindness, and Respect. On October 1, students in grades 2-4 enjoyed a hands-on learning experience at the Tree Jamboree at the Hastings Museum.

We have also introduced a Middle School Student of the Week recognition to celebrate students who demonstrate positive character and our Storm Strong values!

Thank you to everyone who attended Parent/Teacher Conferences! We appreciate the opportunity to partner with families to support student success.

As we head into the second quarter, we look forward to continued growth, exciting activities, and a great winter sports season. Thank you for supporting Bruning-Davenport. Go Storm!

Melinda Kerwood
Davenport Principal

As we swing into the 2nd quarter of the school year, we also swing into the exciting time of the year! We are closing our fall athletic seasons with post season play and the time and efforts of the work we've done thus far are coming to fruition. It is with much gratefulness that we move forward into November.

November is a time to reflect on all we have to be thankful for in our school district. We have such bright, smart students and dedicated staff! As I discussed in my October newsletter, we had our 5-year external visit, where educators from all over the state came to visit our district on October 14-15. They had the opportunity to interview students, staff, school board members, and patrons of the community. They also got to visit classrooms and witness all of the fantastic things our students are learning. At the end of the day of October 15, they gave us a presentation of their findings, where they shared how impressive our district is in so many aspects. They noted how welcoming and interactive our students were with them as they passed them in the hallways and met them in the classrooms. They loved to see the implementation of Storm Strong and WIN time! We have so much to be proud of and thankful for with our Bruning-Davenport district!

Throughout this month, I would like for you to have daily conversations with your children about the positive things happening each day. This is the time we can focus on our positive impact as students, teachers, and community members. How can you improve yourself and those around you? What can we do to be "Outstanding Leaders"? Together we can make our school district the best it can be.

I pray everyone has a blessed Thanksgiving season!

Ruth Kowalski
Bruning Principal

What's Happening @ Your Libraries

Congratulations to our readers! Since the last newsletter, 695 items have circulated in our libraries! That's awesome!

Our book fair will be here in Davenport before we know it! The flyer is elsewhere in this newsletter. We will be open a couple of evenings, so we hope that gives you the opportunity to grab those stocking stuffers. A book is a gift that can be opened again & again!

Our K-2 students now have access to a brand new online resource geared just to them! It's called Lightbox Spark. All of the material in it is geared to lower elementary students. There are articles, interactive reading resources, hours of in-house video, and everything is in both English & Spanish! Human narration sentence by sentence helps our young students acquire reading skills, as each article is 35 words or less in length. All are invited to check out this new resource from the library's homepage OR at Lightbox Spark (https://tinysrc.me/go/o1fTO6Cvg) !

Digital Citizenship Tip

Do you have online gamers at your house? Are you interested in helping them navigate their gaming safely? To help your family talk about this subject, some tips and conversation starters about talking to strangers online and what healthy communication looks like are in this article titled Safer Internet Day 2026ESRB's Video Game Tips (https://tinysrc.me/go/cMn3N6CDR).

Counselor's Corner

Where did October go? I guess time flies when you're having fun!

In K-8th grade Guidance, we worked though our bullying unit since October is Bullying Prevention Awareness month! Bullies are not allowed in our school!

The 5th graders went to MetalQuest and were amazed at all of the robotics and technology!

The Sophomores went to the career fair for Thayer County Students. There were many businesses there and they had to ask them questions for a chance to win a prize! They also listened to speakers who shared insight on resumes, entrepreneurship, and job interviews.

The Juniors will be taking the PSAT/NMSQT and they will get to attend the Thayer County College Fair soon!

The Seniors have been working on Everfi learning about money, costs of living, and college life!

We will all continue learning and have fun!

Thank you for all you do!

It's been a busy month for PreK!

Thank you to the Bruning firemen for bringing the fire truck and ambulance to school for them to see. They also taught them about fire safety and what to do in case of a fire.

The following day the PreK got to go to the pumpkin patch in Geneva! They had a great time, even if it was chilly!

3rd graders had a fun and educational day at the STEM Field Day at the Thayer County Fairgrounds, put on by the Thayer and Nuckolls County Extension offices. Students engaged in a variety of hands-on STEM (Science Technology Engineering and Math)-related activities. They learned about bird beak adaptations to eat different kinds of foods, made a magnetic pendulum, engineered eco-bots out of toothbrushes and batteries, learned about circuits with Nebraska Public Power, and went through the design process to make "egg-cellent" helmets to protect eggs.

FFA Update: To start off the busy month of October, the Bruning-Davenport FFA chapter went to district land judging in Wood River. This contest consisted of 24 of our members evaluating the land to determine its capability class along with the soil types and textures. Eva Oltmans received a purple ribbon placing 17th, Aliviah Barney 33rd, Kennedy Barney 59th, Anthony Nutsch 64th, and Cynthia Ozenbaugh 85th. Our top 4 people were 25 points away from making it to state. The following week, some of our members were heavily involved with feeding our local farmers, and delivered goodie bags to area Co-Ops where they were distributed. We also had the great privilege of helping 99.5 KUTT with Harvest Bonanza. Four of our members helped serve hot dog meals to those harvesting at Cargill in Carleton. To wrap up the month, 13 of our members are headed to Indianapolis for the annual FFA National Convention. On the first day they visited the Field of Dreams and the National Farm Toy Museum. Day 2 they drove the last bit to Indy just in time to make the opening session. Day 3 they spent the morning and afternoon at the Expo talking with colleges, learning from businesses, and exploring new technologies. Day 4 they started the day bright and early with a trip down to Lexington, KY to tour the Keeneland Race Track and Old Friends Retirement Farm. Day 5, the last day, they went to the American degree ceremony and headed home! -BD FFA Report, Emma Hoins

Don't Take the Bait: How to Spot and Stop Phishing Attacks

It happens in a fraction of a second. You're scanning your inbox between meetings, and an email catches your eye: "Urgent: Your account has been suspended," or perhaps "Invoice #8492 Overdue." Your heart drops slightly, you click the link, and before you know it, sensitive credentials or personal data have been compromised.

Phishing remains the single most common entry point for cyberattacks worldwide. While modern email security filters block millions of malicious messages every day, scammers are constantly refining their tactics to slip through the cracks. Knowing how to identify these deceptive messages is your best defense.

What Does a Phishing Email Look Like?

Phishing attacks rely on social engineering—manipulating human emotion rather than exploiting software vulnerabilities. Attackers typically try to trigger urgency, fear, curiosity, or greed.

Here are the most reliable red flags to watch for in your inbox:

- Mismatched or Suspicious Sender Addresses: The display name might say "IT Support" or "Payroll Department," but looking closely at the actual email address reveals subtle anomalies (e.g., support@paypa1-security.com instead of paypal.com).
- Urgent or Threatening Language: Messages claiming your account will be permanently deleted within 24 hours, or threatening legal action if an invoice isn't paid immediately, are designed to make you act before you think.
- Deceptive Hyperlinks: Hover your mouse over any link without clicking to view the true destination URL. If the text says yourbank.com but the preview link points somewhere entirely different, do not click.
- Generic Greetings: Phrases like "Dear Customer" or "Valued Employee" often indicate a mass phishing campaign, whereas legitimate services usually address you by name.
- Unexpected Attachments: Be wary of emails containing unsolicited files, especially ZIP folders, PDF invoices from unknown sources, or documents prompting you to "enable macros."

4 Rules to Protect Yourself and Your Team

Maintaining a strong defense doesn't require technical expertise—just a consistent set of habits.

1. Verify Out-of-Band: If you receive an urgent request from a supervisor, vendor, or bank asking for money, password resets, or sensitive information, verify it using a separate, trusted channel (e.g., phone call or direct internal chat).
2. Never Enter Credentials via Emailed Links: Instead of clicking links inside notification emails, navigate directly to the official website using your bookmarked links or by typing the domain directly into your browser.
3. Enable Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA): Multi-factor authentication adds an extra layer of defense. Even if an attacker manages to steal your password via a fake landing page, MFA helps prevent unauthorized access to your account.
4. Remember: Security isn't about never clicking anything; it's about pausing to double-check before taking action. When in doubt, verify!

MENTORS WANTED & NEEDED

TeamMates has arrived in our district. This school-based mentoring program has been changing lives in Nebraska and beyond for 35 years. It's a great way for caring adults to make a lasting impact in the life of a student with just 30-45 minutes a week. We are excited to get started and give our students the opportunity to experience the lifelong benefits of TeamMates involvement. If you are interested in making a difference in the life of a Bruning-Davenport student, please contact coordinator Lori Balke at lbalke@bdstorm.org or 402-239-7182.
