June Board Meeting

Approved combined Homecoming with Shickley.
Approved Resignation of Joy Lentfer as Elementary Para.
Approved Girls Golf as a standalone program.
Approved Region 18 contract for Deaf services from ESU 18.
Approved Discipline policy with after school detention sessions as needed.
Parents will be responsible for picking up their child after detentions have been served.
Approve cell phone policy of teacher collection of all phones at the beginning of each class.
Approved property casualty insurance policy with EMC for 24-25 school year.
Discussed before and after school programs provided by the school. Will see if we have the manpower to host such a program.
Discussed ending the school year at the same time. Tabled for the upcoming year.
Discussed technology purchase rotation schedule.
Approved moving the schools CD rates from 1% to 5%. The school has about $500,000 in CD's.
Discussed the Daycare financials. They are in the black two months in a row and projections are for that to continue. Up until the last two months the Daycare had not been breaking even.
Discussed list of vehicles.
Discussed Facility concerns. A local group known as "Build Together" has been present at board meetings for almost a year and are advocating for a new school facility. Mr. Lampe will meet with the group to discuss their goals and intentions as well as begin to get their facts and data about such a project.

Upcoming upgrades:

Almost done with HS Science labs.
Bruning Football Concession stand.
Home Ec rooms, now that we have a Home Ec teacher.
Bruning room for Counselor.
Did a walk thru with the Buildings Grounds committee to compile a list of needed updates and we have a page full.
